

NORTH OF ▲ 60 MINING NEWS

3 CopperBank gets Pyramid deposit

Full Metal offers Alaska Peninsula property to emerging copper venture

9 Miners queue for AK natural gas

Donlin seeks ROW for pipeline to Cook Inlet; others eye North Slope LNG

14 Arctic gathers for mining summit

Participants from Alaska to Greenland talk Far North development issues

A US$6.2 million exploration program funded by Dowa Metals & Mining Co. is currently underway at Constantine Metal Resources' Palmer project in Southeast Alaska. This program features a 10,000-meter drill program aimed at expanding the Glacier Creek copper-zinc-gold-silver deposit at Palmer and exploring similar volcanogenic massive sulfide prospects across the property.

CONSTANTINE METAL RESOURCES LTD.

A special supplement to Petroleum News

WEEK OF
June 29, 2014

Petroleum
news