

NORTH OF 60 MINING NEWS

3 Critical minerals bills get a boost

Private sector group “ready to help” send stuck legislation to White House

4 Less than average Pebble Mine?

EPA proposes limiting footprint to smaller than a mid-sized porphyry mine

10 Tsilhqot’in FN prevails in high court

“Ground breaking” ruling grants Aboriginal title on Crown lands in B.C.

Sumitomo Metal Mining Pogo, which is investing roughly US$17 million on exploration during 2014 at its high-grade gold mine located roughly 60 miles (100 kilometers) southeast of Fairbanks, leads a group of diverse global-scale mining companies hailing from Australia, Japan, and the United States that are quietly exploring Alaska's Interior. Page 9.

PHOTO BY JUDY PATRICK, COURTESY OF SUMITOMO METAL MINING POGO

A special supplement to Petroleum News

WEEK OF
July 27, 2014

Petroleum
news