

NORTH OF 60 MINING NEWS

T
Y
N

G
A
N
A
T

B
E
R
N
E
R
S
B
A
Y

Pt St. MARY

This 1908 U.S. Geological Survey map shows the Kensington and Jualin mines and a number of other high-grade gold mines active in the Berners Bay region at the time. Today, Coeur Mining Inc. has established a contemporary mine at Kensington and discovered a vein of high-grade gold that it plans to develop at Jualin. See page 3.

PROPERTY OF
The Alaska Agricultural College and School of Mines

6 Does EPA want to zone America?

Pebble CEO Collier vows to get project into permitting to stop agency's power grab

12 Yukon mines face high hurdles

Operations are challenged with low metal prices, high costs and permitting snags

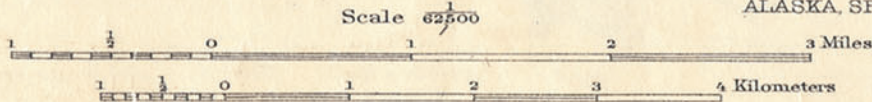

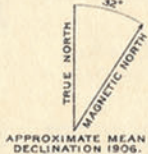

18 Mary River delivers first iron!

Baffinland starts year-round mining from massive high-grade deposits in Nunavut

135°10' ENGRAVED SEPT. 1908 BY U.S.G.S. 5' 135°00' 134°55'

Alfred H. Brooks, Geologist in charge.
Triangulation by U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey.
Topography by R. B. Oliver.
Surveyed in 1906.

Topography indicated by dotted contours, compiled from maps of International Boundary Commission.

Contour interval 50 feet.
Datum is mean sea level.

BERNERS BAY SPECIAL

A special supplement to Petroleum News

WEEK OF
October 26, 2014

Petroleum
news